VENUS FOLLOW UP THE SUCCESS OF THEIR DEBUT SINGLE "DERANGED" WITH A MONUMENTAL MIX OF RAUCOUS GUITARS, ACCOMPLISHED CUTTING VOCALS AND JUST THE RIGHT AMOUNT OF SYNTH CRAZINESS.

Implementing Riot Grrrl aesthetics and feminist activism, Leeds synth rock 5-piece Venus release their second single 'SOUR' on Monomyth Records. Analogue Trash described Venus's music as "A bulldozer of arrangements combined with demonic melodies that can leave you moshing your way to wokeness". Their live shows are unmissable events showcasing the bands depth and pure talent. The girls have a busy summer of gigs and promotion ahead and win new fans in every city they play.

"Sour describes the aggravation derived from shallow characters pre-conceptually generalising or judging you, and mistakenly thinking they've 'figured you out'. If you're someone who has been alienated, demonised or simply bullied for being who you are, I hope this song gives you some comfort. But a big thank you, to the perpetrators who inspired us to write this song, I hope you listen to it". GK.
